Semi-Monthly Meeting Village Board, Monday Eve. Routine Business

NO COMPLAINING CITIZENS
PRESENT TO ENLIVEN

Committee To Draft Bldg. Code

Two New Phone Boxes Added. Contract Signed For Triangle Plot.
Work On Propositions—Budget

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Village Board was held in their rooms. All present but Trustee Braunfels who is sunning himself on the sands of Palm Beach where we would like to be if things were evenly divided—Sovietly.

There were no constituents present to make it interesting so that nothing but routine business was transacted and not much of that until honest men were jogging and rauges in bed.

The Triangle plot about which there has been so much trouble has been finally adjusted. The purchase price was $2100. On motion a check of $500 was drawn in favor of former owners on account and passed to Mr. Lockwood who is taking part in the transaction. Village President was authorized to sign the contract.

The question of a building code was informally discussed after which President Schmiedel and Commissioner Richard Bennett were appointed a committee to present a working code for consideration and final incorporation in the zoning ordinance, if that should pass.

Growing out of old time bookkeeping and administration a number of double assessment tax matters and cases of taxes charged in instances where they had been seemingly paid without proper record. Most of the cases were clear and easily adjusted. Some cases were sent back where the searcher had been in fault.

Mr. Conlin asked permission for an additional railroad crossing to accommodate his increasing business and new development. Laid over.

Telephone company submitted plan for adding 2 new call boxes and transferring an old one with price of $162.50. The new phone boxes will be numbered 1 and 2.

A communication was received from the 3rd Ave. Railroad Company presenting blue print in regard to proposed turn out switch on Yonkers Avenue. Referred to Village Engineer Smith to examine and report back at next meeting.

A vote of thanks was passed thanking the Memorial Committee for the work they did which culminated on Washington's birthday.

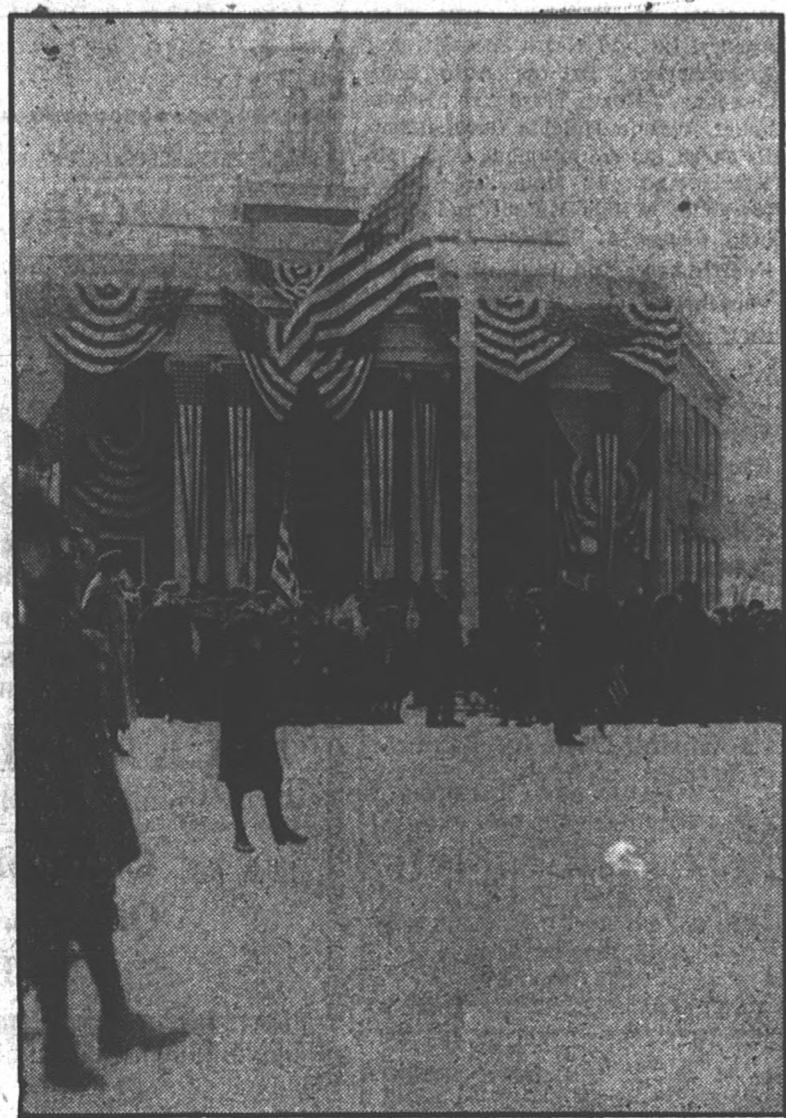

The Board then went into a Committee of the whole or half or some other fraction on the propositions to be submitted at the coming election and the troublesome budget. We did not stay to learn the result as it will appear in formal announcement and advertisement later.

DEMOCRATIC VILLAGE PRIMARY

At the Democratic assembly held in May's Hall on Friday evening for the nominations for candidates for village offices, the following ticket was named:

President, Alvin B. Champin; trustees 2, each for 2 years, Thomas L. McGuire and W. Dynan; treasurer, Charles Wangler and Police Justice Attorney William A. Jackson.

"The Democratic Village Committee of which J. J. Chattrain is chairman earnestly requests the voters of the Village of Tuckahoe to seriously consider the candidates of the Democratic party if they favor a change in the village administration. They are all men of excellent standing in our community and are men worthy of your support. Election day is Tuesday, March 20th, 1923."

LYING IN STATE CEREMONY, WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

VETERANS BESTOW WREATHS ON CRAWFORD MONUMENT

After the ceremony of lying in state of Washington's Unknown, the casket was taken to the basement.

At the suggestion of Chief Officer Morrison and Commandant Levins of the Veterans of Foreign Wars the wreaths and floral pieces were delivered to the veterans to be placed at the Crawford monument.

This great boulder in Tuckahoe road where it joins White Plains road marks the spot where Capt. Samuel Crawford fell in a bloody skirmish in 1776.

All of the floral tributes were placed in automobiles. The veterans fell in behind and marched as escort to the monument. The wreaths were placed about the boulder forming a most imposing picture at the heroes monument.

For many days this beautiful display of immortalities and imperishable leaves may be viewed by all who pass on White Plains road. They will retain their beauty for a long time.

CARD OF THANKS

The Forrest family of Main Street wish to thank their many friends for the kindness and sympathy shown in their recent bereavement the death of their father, Mr. Thomas Forrest.

CHARLES D. WANGLER DECLINES

Tuckahoe, N. Y.
February 27th, 1923

Mr. C. Behrman,
Clerk, Village of Tuckahoe,
Tuckahoe, N. Y.

My dear Mr. Behrman:—
I have learned indirectly that my name is to appear on ballot for coming Village election. If this is correct, please be advised that I do not wish my name to appear thereon.

Thanking you for your attention to this matter, I remain,
Yours very truly,
Charles D. Wangler.

SWITCH FOR BETTER SERVICE

The 3rd Avenue Railroad is asking the Village Board for permission to put in a turn out switch, somewhere on Yonkers Avenue, between the Main Street corner and the dividing line, between the two sections, at the bridge over the Bronx. If this is permitted we are promised better trolley service on the Yonkers-Tuckahoe-New Rochelle line. The suggested improvement is very much to be desired.

BOARD OF TRADE

The Board of Trade of Tuckahoe and vicinity will hold a meeting on March 9th at 8 P. M. in the Village Hall for the purpose of continuing this organization under the same name or a new name.

FIRE CHIEFS ARE TO SERVE FOR 3RD TERM

Election Held in Waverly Engine
House, Friday 23rd

The regular bi-annual election for officers of the Eastchester Fire Department was held in the rooms of Waverly Engine Company, on Friday evening, February 24 between the hours of 7 and 10 P. M., with the following results: For chief, William H. Dempsey Jr., Waverly Engine Co. No. 1, 46; 1st Deputy Chief, Clarence H. Behrman, Rescue Hook and Ladder Co., 4; Arthur Steuhl, Bronxville Engine Hose Co., No. 3, 35; Austin D. Riley, North End Hose Co., No. 4 10.

The chief and deputies elected had served two terms and are now entering upon a third term.

Austin Riley, officially withdrew his name by letter to the Board of Fire Commissioners and announcement in the Bulletin. He was in no sense a candidate though a number of personal friends paid him this credit of a complimentary vote. This action was not intended to cost any reflection upon Mr. Steuhl.

Singularly enough when remembering past events, no fake alarm was rung in as a joke to interrupt the proceedings of an election. The boys manifestly have a heart. It would have been beyond any joke to have sent out the firemen on a false alarm on a night like Friday.

The annual report has been reviewed.

WORD PICTURES OF PERSONS AND ORGANIZATIONS SERVING

Too Much Credit Cannot Be Given
Helping Hands

The war veterans, the official boards and all who took any specific part in the Lying-in-State ceremony in general spoke in grateful approval of the beautiful casket freely furnished by Benedict and McGrath. The beautiful plate with its significant device "Washington's Unknown" invited the attention. These gentlemen did a most kindly act, but we cannot make any invidious distinction for every one responded to any and every request of the committee, for service.

At the conclusion of the exercises at 2 P. M., a special meeting was called by Commander Levins of the John L. Grogan Post, and held in the library rooms and a resolution unanimously adopted heartily commending Mr. James O'Shaughnessy for originating this movement and the time, means and efforts expended in bringing it to so successful a conclusion. Mr. O'Shaughnessy was completely surprised and his voice was not quite steady as he thanked these soldiers and sailors who battled so valorously on land and who wear on their breasts medals presented in appreciation of their heroism by the nations of Europe as well as our own. "I thank you gentlemen this is one of the finest tributes I have ever received."

The Daughters of the American Revolution were represented by Mrs. Ralph S. Butler, Vice Regent; Mrs. Theodore Westerman, Registrar; Mrs. H. R. Brown, Treasurer, and Mrs. R. L. Knowles, Recording Secretary, all of Bronxville. These ladies presided over the luncheon served in the library rooms of the Village Hall. They were assisted by a committee of the Ladies Auxiliary of John L. Grogan Post, V. F. W., and the Gold Star Mothers.

Officially representing General Pershing were Major Allen Gullion and Captain Joseph Cromwell quartered at Fort Slocum. The wreath they ceremoniously laid on the casket was noticeably beautiful. The General would have been here in person, if his numerous engagements had permitted, as what was typified here by the ceremonies on the 32nd, has his warmest commendation.

A relic in the form of a bayonet that had seen service on some muster, carried by one of Gen. Washington's soldiers and found by Stephen Quirk, sometime in September, 1908 in that Midland Place sand pit when the skeletons were unearthed was the object of unusual interest among those gathered at the Lying-in-State services on Washington's birthday. The fact was also of interest that Mrs. Quirk was the great-granddaughter of Major Umstead who served with General Washington in all these engagements on Tuckahoe Hills.

Solemn Silent Ceremony of Veneration of Skeleton remains of Unknown Revolutionary Soldier, Lying in State in Village Hall on Washing- ton's Birthday, February 22, 1923

GREATEST PUBLIC ASSEMBLAGE IN VILLAGE HISTORY

Historic Occasion Awakens Nationwide Interest, President Harding and Governor Smith Send Regrets,
Gen. Pershing Sends Army Officers with Wreath

DAUGHTERS OF AMERICAN REVOLUTION PATRONESSES

Public Officials of Westchester County, Eastchester and Village Board; Clergy of all Churches, Children of all Schools and every Society and Organization; All March in Procession of Tribute. Veterans of Foreign Wars as Guard of Honor. D. A. R. Patronesses

Washington's Unknown, the graveless soldier boy of the Revolution was venerated in Tuckahoe on Washington's Birthday in a historic ceremonial demonstration.

Thousands of people thronged the streets, filled the plaza and marched in reverential silence with tributes to the coffin of the Unknown Boy, who personifies the army of George Washington.

The Daughters of the American Revolution sent an official delegation who laid a wreath on the casket.

General John J. Pershing, General of the United States Armies, sent two officers of his staff with a wreath, as a tribute of the army of today to the first army of the Republic.

The official bodies of Westchester County, Town of Eastchester and Village of Tuckahoe brought wreaths and marched in the silent procession. All of the school children of the Village and the Town came with wreaths and American flags to honor the Revolutionary soldier.

Every society and organization having a representation in Tuckahoe sent wreaths and delegations to join in the procession.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars in some time in silent prayer at the coffin.

The school children in marching order by this time had filled the plaza. A Foreign War Veteran in uniform marched at the head of each group of school children.

Each school child carried a flag. At the head of each column of school children a little girl carried a wreath. Delegations of all the various societies followed the school children carrying American flags and society banners, and each brought a wreath.

Every organization and society of Tuckahoe and vicinity; social, benevolent, fraternal, political, and commercial and every racial group and every church congregation was represented by marching bodies that swelled the great procession in the ceremony of silence.

When the school children were filing past the casket in solemn awe, and their marching lines filled both sides of the plaza, an official U. S. Army automobile drew up and halted at the flag pole. It contained two officers of the Regular Army sent by General Pershing. These were Major Allen W. Gullion and Captain Joseph Cromwell. Major Gullion was carrying the old burying ground last August, the skeleton remains of this boy were cast out of a trench grave.

His grave was taken away from him.

He no longer had a place in the shallow trench where they were lying three deep.

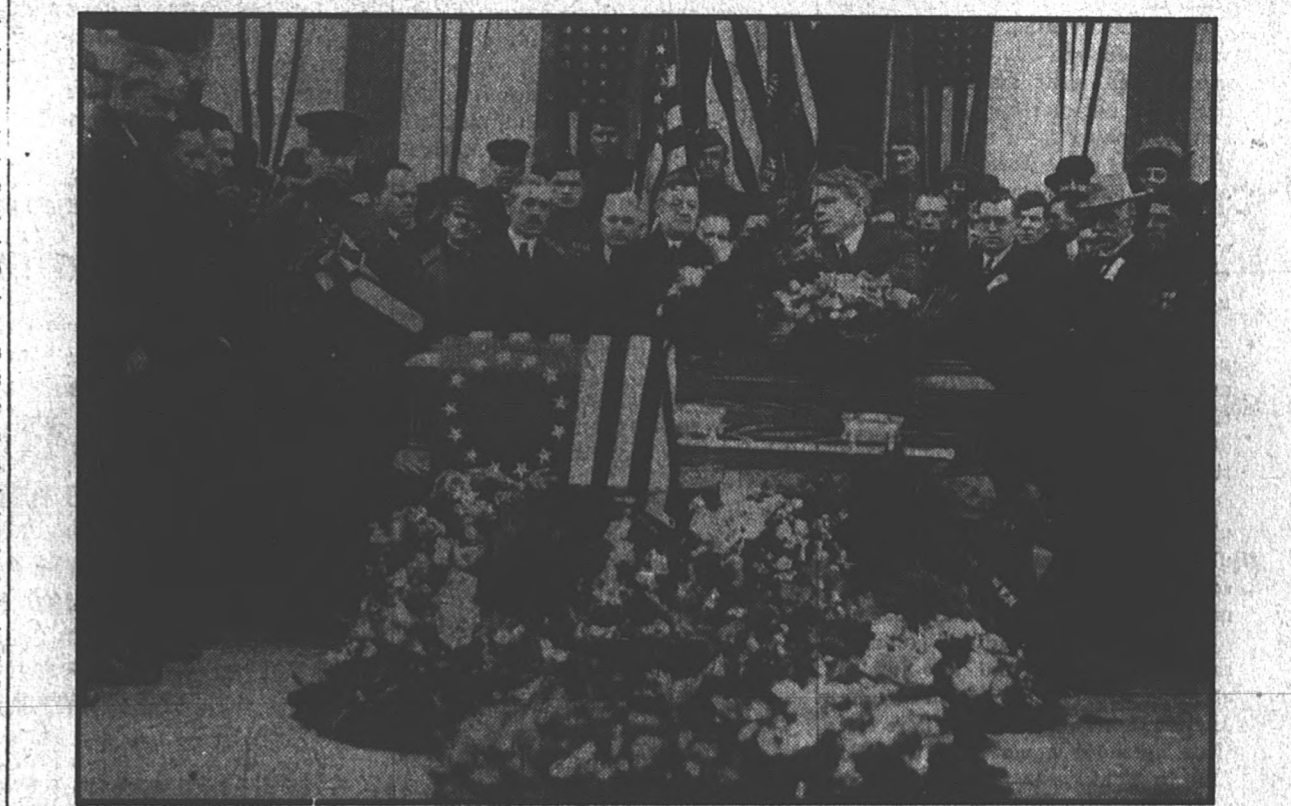

The patriotic people of Tuckahoe instantly took notice of the fact that one of Washington's soldiers had his grave taken away from his and was graveless.

The matter was brought to the attention of the Village Board. President Schmiedel instantly announced that every proper measure should be taken in the circumstances.

He said that this boy would have a real grave and a real funeral, and that the patriotism of Tuckahoe would see that he got both.

The making of arrangements was then put under way. Months were spent in investigating every detail of history in connection with the fighting on Tuckahoe Hills and the trench graves of the Old Revolutionary Soldiers' Burying Ground.

The investigation of this history was carried out by the Daughters of the American Revolution. When the uniforms of their service formed the guard of honor.

The ceremony attending the lying in state began at 10:30 and continued until two o'clock. The Village Hall was draped in American flags, every business house and every residence in Tuckahoe hung out a flag.

The rotunda of the Village Hall was festooned. A portrait of Washington formed a centerpiece in the patriotic decorations.

The casket containing the skeleton remains of the Unknown Soldier was placed in the center of the rotunda. Over it was draped a Betsy Ross flag with the thirteen stars on its blue field.

A silver plate on the beautiful casket contained the following inscription:

Washington's Unknown Soldier,
Tuckahoe, New York.
1776.

This simple inscription in its few words and figures told the whole history, to the great and silent course as it made its visit of respect and patriotic devotion.

Long before the doors of the Village Hall were open the streets and plaza were filled with people. They came singly and in groups. Many women came, carrying infants in arms. The village and country-side came to participate in the devotional ceremony.

The clergy of every denomination in Tuckahoe and its environs came in a body. The doors of the Village Hall were opened at 10:30 and the clergy entered and remained for ing a wreath to place on the coffin in the name of the General of the Armies.

For three hours and a half the silent procession wended its way slowly and reverently through the rotunda of the Village Hall. Wreaths and flowers were heaped on the casket and on the floor around it.

Then along the walls of the rotunda wreaths were placed on top of wreaths for lack of space.

Every head was bowed, as the procession passed through the improvised mortuary chapel. The beautiful rotunda, with its classic lines of architecture might well have been designed for such a sacred ceremonial.

Many eyes were dimmed with tears but no word was spoken.

Tears for an unknown who had been dead for six generations of time.

He may have been a farmer boy, half clad, half armed, half fed, when he fell.

Now he personifies the Army of the Revolution.

He was one of the rebels who made Tuckahoe Hills bloody but glorious in the long, bitter struggle for Independence. He died on Tuckahoe Hill, one of the many that fought and fell there in every one of the seven years of war. He, with the rest, was buried at the foot of the hill, almost in the centre of Tuckahoe, today.

So many rebels were buried there that it soon became known as the Revolutionary Soldiers Burying Ground. It has always been known by that name.

When business encroached upon all of the historical facts had been thoroughly explored the Daughters of the American Revolution issued an official declaration that these were the bones of Washington's soldiers, the complete skeleton of a boy and the nearly complete skeletons of two men.

The Daughters of the American Revolution approved the plan of the Village Board to give the remains suitable burial, and urged upon the Board that it make proper plans accordingly.

It was found then that many things had to be done in order that a worthy funeral could be held. The old burying ground is private property. It is desired that this shall first be acquired and dedicated to the memory of the Revolutionary soldiers buried there.

While arrangements were being made to carry out the funeral plans it was decided to pay a preliminary tribute of respect on Washington's Birthday.

General Pershing was consulted and he said that every effort should be made to make the reinterment in keeping with the immortal cause in which this soldier boy fought and died.

When the arrangements were made for the ceremony of lying in state President Harding's secretary sent a message of regret that the President of the United States could not come in person to participate.

Governor Smith of New York sent a similar letter.

ONE GREAT OUTPOURING OF PATRIOTIC EXPRESSION

As we stood on the steps in the rear of the rotunda of the Village Hall last Thursday and saw 350 children of Main Street school, 200 from the Parochial school with a group from Waverly and Wilmont schools, 80 percent at least of foreign born percentage, pass about this noble casket buried beneath the wreaths of remembrance, some of which were wrought and brought by these children, we were justly proud of this same Tuckahoe which vaudeville actors will no longer dare to malign even in fun.

We saw these boys march with martial step, their caps clasped to their left breasts and the girls curtsy in passing and that feeling of grateful pride was intensified. Some noble ladies who were standing near remarked: "we feel like crying." I confessed to a similar feeling. Tuckahoe has never had so noble an experience.

We venture to say without any fear of a successful contradiction that in all Westchester County, even in her cities of more than twenty times the population, there has not been a ceremony quite to compare. Every society in our village was committed to an active participation by delegations in attendance with appropriate emblematic wreaths. As though this were not enough one of our patriotic young men went among our business men, our merchants, with a subscription paper for a wreath. Though the most of these worthy citizens had already participated through the various societies with which they were affiliated they quickly responded with more than twice the amount needed.

Through such participation and personal attendance Tuckahoe is unambiguously committed to this imperative duty of honoring the dead who died here that Democracy might ultimately triumph everywhere.

Speaking of our foreign born population, it was a matter for congratulation that every Italian-American society was represented with goodly numbers and their splendid flags.

When the concluding ceremony saw between one and two-hundred children from the Hebrew Orphan Asylum, march all the way here from their splendid home near the Pipe Line in Yonkers to pay their tribute with numbers and wreath.

It was only a few weeks ago that Mr. O'Shaughnessy at the conclusion of a meeting of the village board called attention to the Bulletin story of the second uncovering of human bones in the sand pit at Midland Place, and suggested the idea of an investigation. If, as an outcome, it should be proved that these bones were of Washington's "Unknown" were we not bound in all honor to give them a fitting interment.

As we look back upon it, it seems incredible that so much could have been done in so brief a time. The overcoming of the doubt was comparatively simple as the D. A. R. and Professors of Columbia College had passed upon the skeletons uncovered in 1908. It is now a matter of history so far as the first step is concerned.

In due course these "Unknowns" will be laid away with becoming ceremony and in the proper place.

In the years to come our children will know what was done here, the sacrifices entailed and its full significance.

In view of the fact that there has been an insidious attempt to darken the minds of our people and obstruct righteous government, it is high time that the life and services of Washington should be better understood.

Scarcely a day passes without some one coming in to the Bulletin office inquiring if there are any houses or rooms to let. How can builders, mechanics or any one who have part of lot in such matters be awakened to a realizing sense of this great need?

All know of young people who are putting off the day of marriage until a suitable abiding place can be obtained.

The process of altering former single dwellings originally erected for one family occupancy to accommodate an imperative necessity has so multiplied within the past few years that three or more families are now residing in spaces intended for but one family. The limit has been reached.

Nearly every middle class home or homes for working people are now so crowded that health and common decency are imperilled.

We are gravitating toward a condition of peasantry or a lower grade still.

We extend the age of compulsory attendance at luxurious school edifices with but little thought of home life. This is all very well for those who can afford to erect and occupy the $15,000 homes for the single family with the minimum number of children. But there are others who constitute the great majority of the bone and sinew of our fair land, the home of the free(?) who are being pressed down until they lose all sense of pride and ambition.

Oh, it is all wrong, and so terribly wrong. Perhaps we ought not to expect any national remedy and think of this as a community trouble which can only be remedied by each primary section. If some village would start in to mend this need by officials and leading citizens combining in the purchase of waste places and the erection thereon of community homes, a remedy will have been found. There is plenty of unoccupied land in Tuckahoe which owners might be willing to sell, for such purpose, at a moderate price.

It may happen that The Village Improvement Association will find a way, perhaps even a better way than we have suggested. We have a lovely and wholesome village that is so desirable and people do want to come to live. How desirable it would be to help them in so laudable a purpose.

OUR VILLAGE ELECTION

The village election will be here before we know it. March 20th is not a great way off. The village board, our representatives, are not asking for appropriations for many things. The streets, sewers and lighting have been pretty well taken care of so that we can boast of out-ranking in these particulars any other village in Westchester County.

People will not say that too much has been asked for and they would not want any of these improvements undone or put back on the old footing. Now then the Board comes forward asking an appropriation for the purchase of 2 acres of land, on Main Street and Marbledale road; designed to layout a base-ball field courts and tracks peculiar to athletic fields.

There is the thought back of this that at a later time, (and not too late, either) an appropriation will be asked for the erection of a memorial community building in some corner of this plot.

Our people have been wise and generous in response and it is not likely that they will change at this important time.

This is not merely a matter of sentiment but plain business in its last chapter for anything which will encourage really development in a home community is a benefactor.

INCOME TAX FACTS NO. 6

To avoid penalty, income tax returns must be filed with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the taxpayer lives or has principal place of business on or before midnight of March 15, 1923.

Where additional time is required because of illness or absence of the taxpayer from home, the collector may grant, upon application before the return is due, March 15, an extension of not to exceed 30 days. If an accurate return can not be made within the 30 days extension period, a request for a further extension must be made to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C. Collectors have not authority to grant an extension exceeding 30 days.

Failure to make a return on time subjects the delinquent to a penalty of $1,000 and an additional penalty of 25 per cent of the amount of tax due. If the failure is willful, however, or an attempt is made to evade the tax by filing a false return, the offender is liable to imprisonment and to a fine of not more than $10,000 and costs, in addition to a penalty of 50 per cent of the amount of tax evaded.

RUSSIA DOES NOT NEED OUR CHARITY

It is a matter of official knowledge that Russia is exporting large supplies of grain to Germany and Turkey and the United States is expected to go on feeding the starving (?) Russian millions. Russia is a commercial rival and a political enemy and yet we are expected to go on loving them as they take the bread from the mouths of our children and drive home the most destructive propaganda. It is time that our charity begins at home.

LYRIC THEATRE

We certainly must say that Mgr. Rosay is not only always smiling but is energetic and enterprising, the reason:—

Thursday, Feb. 22, Washington's Birthday, moving pictures of Tuckahoe and Town Hall and exercises held in the Square were taken and on Sunday, Feb. 25, the same were shown at Lyric Theatre. Compliments to Mgr. Rosay.

Thursday, Mar. 1 will be shown one of the most red blooded actors on the screen. Herbert Rawlinson has never had a part more fitted to his personality than the role of the adventurous hero in "One Wonderful Night," the Universal feature attraction at the Lyric Theatre. Lillian Rich makes a charming foil for the star.

Also another episode of the Social Buccaneer.

Friday, March 2d with the greatest cast of Stars ever assembled in "I Am The Law" filmed amidst the scenic splendors of the American Northwest. There were three in the room.....in a creaking tumble-down shack that shivered and threatened with each onslaught of the blizzard without, to tumble in on the gross farce which Fate, in her irony, was playing within. See "I Am The Law." Episode 12 of Eddie Polo's great serial "Capt. Kidd."

Saturday, a riot of thrills and realism, "Saved by Radio" featuring George Larkin and an all-star cast with exceptional Vaudeville.

Sunday, Tom Mix in his latest drama "Do and Dare." Episode 16 of the World's Greatest Serial "Buffalo Bill".

Monday the famous Italian Drama "Sister Teresa" a true story of exciting events and other photoplays.

Tuesday, Mar. 6, Frank Mayo in The Flaming Hour. You are going to stand up and yell when you see the powder factory fire in this smashing story of a man's regeneration! It's one of the season's big things on the screen! A dynamic dramatic masterpiece!

For Wednesday, Mar. 7 the great Broadway success "More to be Pitted than Scorned" with all star cast Alice Lake, Rosemary Theby, J. Frank Glendon, Philo McCollough, Baby Josephine Adair. A cast of super excellence, in the screen version of Charles E. Blaney's superb drama of home and stage.

"More to be Pitted than Scorned" will touch the strings of every heart in the audience, and make them sing with delight.

Alice Lake, as the wife and mother, who fights with a heavy chair, a brass candlestick, feet and fists for her child, endures prison and the asylum and withstands temptation for the baby's sake, is an appealing figure. Her performance as Viola Lorraine is a scene classic that will live for a long time.

UNION CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Total attendance for the Sunday School last Sunday Feb. 25th was 127. We are again starting to grow.

The Sunday School is made up of a large number of boys and girls who in the coming years are to be the superintendents and officers of this school. Therefore, last Sunday, the school, was given over to the boys in Mr. Robt. Simpkins' class to act as the superintendent and officers for the hour.

Herbert Hinman, Jr., was Supt. George Moon, pianist. George McCoombs and Alfred Lennox, Treas. and Sect'y.

This is the first time, this idea was ever worked out in our school.

Next Tuesday evening the Brotherhood and Bible Class meets as usual in the Lecture room of the church. This will be the first Tuesday in March, and therefore it will be the social evening. We are very fortunate in having Mr. Avery, who is from Chestercrest Institute, who is going to give us an interesting address.

On Friday afternoon, the Pastors' Class, of all boys and girls between 12 and 15 years of age should attend. The subject is "Why everyone should read the Bible?"

The Ladies Aid Society will meet with Mrs. Edwin Grelsmere of 20 Lawrence Ave., Thursday afternoon, March 1st.

A Sauerkraut Dinner, will be given under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society, Wed. evening, Feb. 28, 1923, from 6 to 7:30 P. M. Tickets 75c. One should not miss the dinners that our ladies make.

BRONXVILLE NEWS NOTES

On Monday afternoon of last week the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Knowles rode into open water as he was coasting from the river bank in the area reserved for skaters by the Parkway Commission and had a narrow escape from drowning.

According to the Bronxville Review one of the crying needs of that beautiful village is an auditorium which will accommodate all the people who may desire to participate in any public performance or community need.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS ENJOYS RARE TREAT

A lady of this village recently gave her Sunday School class a royal treat by taking them to New York for an evening of Metropolitan Opera.

Following is her message: "Never has the Metropolitan Opera Co. offered the musically minded a more superb afternoon. To be able to hear the season's most popular opera in good seats at moderate prices seems beyond all bounds of human pleasure.

Besides the new scenery and costumes, the music of the opera is not only beautiful but easily understood. Mile. Bori, who sings Juliet, possesses a voice of exquisite tone, beauty of face and figure and rare dramatic power.

The whole performance seems especially well adapted to girls and boys who will treasure its inspiration of a life time."

NEVER HAPPENED BEFORE

We have not had a single fire alarm since Jan. 8, and not one so far during the month of February. This is the first time in the history of the Eastchester Fire Department that such a lapse has happened.

BIRTHS

Daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel O'Rourke of 68 Lake Avenue on February 9th and registered in the office of the Village Clerk.

Grouchlets

This Editor Appreciates.

The editor of a country newspaper may be excused for that bright glow which brightens his face when he reads in the great daily newspapers that his opportunities for doing good to persons and aiding in the upbuilding of communities are the greatest and he comes the nearest to fulfilling his obligations.

Am I just Pernickity (I don't know whether I am spelling that funny word right or not. I guess it is not a dictionary word, so I can spell it any old way).

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions.

middlemen or local inspectors that they do not function? One would suppose that they would be looking out for the company interest. After all is said and done it would seem that everything is run in the interest of Labor, with a capital "L".

In writing in this way I am only echoing a general cry for relief. If there is not some change this whole trolley system will come whopper sometime and come tumbling down with a rush.

REAL ESTATE NOTES

At Bronxville a sale of considerable interest was consummated last week. Elizabeth B. Custer, widow of the hero of Indian wars, General George A. Custer, sold 2 1-4 acres to The Custer Arms, Inc., Dr. F. L. Fossum, President. The brokers negotiating the sale were Burke Stone, Inc.

The property is located one block west of the Railroad Station on the north side of Palmer Avenue, between Bronxville Road and the Bronx Valley Parkway which is now rapidly reaching completion.

The property is to be improved with a building of old English architecture having 48 apartments of 4, 5 and 6 rooms. Some unusual innovations in country apartments are planned such as restaurant service for the convenience of the tenants, duplex apartments, the large living rooms, breakfast alcoves similar to the Park Avenue Apartments which have proven so popular.

Another attractive architectural feature will be the Portier's lodge in the large front entrance court.

Garages will be provided as well as extra servants rooms and space for laundries and drying rooms. The apartments will be rented or sold on the Joint Ownership plan to an approved clientele.

Miss Helen Turk is erecting a 2 1/2 story house, style, Dutch Colonial, on Main Street and Waverly Square, Richard Bennett, architect.

Curran & Curran Plumber, are building a 2 story store apartment building on Scarsdale Avenue. All improvements, R. W. Bennett, architect.

Burke Stone Inc., Bronxville office report that they have sold for Elizabeth H. Harris her house located in Park View Heights to Curtice L. Matthews of N. Y. City. Further report they have leased for Dr. J. Weston an apartment at 60 Underhill Street, Tuckahoe to J. J. Chalfain.

PAUL FARGO IN YONKERS

Paul Fargo, champion boxer of Tuckahoe is "writ down" for a go in the squared circle with Jack Christie of Greenwich Village. This is to be a six round bout in his former stamping ground Yonkers, where he made a reputation which should have entitled him to a more ambitious opportunity, say 12 rounds.

GOLF STORY BY CANAUSO

Canausa, one of the group of golfers, making their home in Tuckahoe is back in town again after four weeks of touring. He and Jim Farrell left here for San Antonio, Texas.

Canausa speaks in warm praise of Texans who are openhearted and open handed, and willing to do everything they can to make for the pleasure of anyone visiting their section.

San Antonio is a beautiful city. Upon arrival they met some other Tuckahoe boys, Bill Carney, Joe and Charles Mathews, John F. Madden, and Charles Manning, ass't. professional at Siwanoy who is now located in Texaralsona, Texas. They had a large gathering. All the boys are looking about for satisfactory placement; but they still long for their home town. They sent their regards to all at home where they expect to arrive sometime in July for the open championship tournament at Inwood, L. I.

Canausa and Jim Farrell roomed together in San Antonio and Corpus Christi and Beaumont, New Orleans.

In San Antonio Johnny Farrell and Jim Barnes played Canauso and Jim Farrell. They had a large gallery Barnes and Johnny won by the small margin of 2 up and 1 to play.

Johnny and Canauso played their old four ball match against the western boys, Bill Crevy and Joe Mathews were the winners. The scores were, Johnny 70, Canauso, 74; Crevy 73 and Joe Mathews 76.

Jim Farrell and Fred Canausa played several more games with the boys, winning them all. They played in three tournaments in San Antonio, Corpus Christie and Beaumont. Games at Houston, Shreveport, New Orleans and Mobile were cancelled for some unknown reason.

Canausa and Jim were going to Mobile from New Orleans when they learned that Mobile was off, so they had to decide, one way or another, Florida or home Farrell went to Florida and Fred for home.

He enjoyed a fine trip. In Beaumont it rained four days and it sure was cold. The fine race track in New Orleans was visited and the ponies played. Nevermind the result.

The whole outfit were just getting nicely acquainted and better in all ways when they had to abandon the trip.

Canausa declares he is glad to get back even if it is cold here. Jim writes he is having a good time in Florida and will be back in four weeks.

TUCKAHOE NEWS NOTES.

The proposed erection of a bridge over the Harlem tracks at the Harlem station at Crestwood is progressing. It is a pity that the matter could not have been advanced more rapidly so that a real beginning could have been arranged for this Spring. But the desired improvement is coming—in time.

The Olympic A. C. will hold their meeting Friday, Feb. 23, 1923 at the Neighborhoodhouse of Tuckahoe. The Olympic A. C. will give a dance Friday, March 16, 1923 at the Neighborhoodhouse of Tuckahoe. Admission 35c and refreshments.

A sauerkraut dinner will be in order at the Union Congregational Church on the evening of Wednesday, Feb. 28. This is an innovation by the Ladies Aid Society and it ought to be a complete success. From 6 to 7:30 P. M. Give your regular dinner the go-bye as this one ought to be enough.

On Sunday evening, Feb. 25th a social was given at the home of Miss Eva McCombe, Lake Avenue, Tuckahoe. The following guests were present. Miss Eva McCombe, Mr. Leighton Wells, Miss Dolly Mansfield, Mr. Albert Grissell, Miss Lillian Carroll, Mr. LeRoy Mumpston, Miss Ethel Sorden and Mr. Martin Steggen. The evening was enjoyed with dancing and refreshments.

In Rescue Hook's last meeting with Bronxville, all three games were won. Bronxville was not playing in usual form. Rescue won the trophy offered by the Board of Fire Commissioners by a good margin to spare.

The several witnesses of this village in the Maresco case were officially reminded to be in attendance at the County Court at White Plains today February 28. The refugees left here on February 5th for Chicago where they were ultimately arrested and a few days later brought back by Deputy Sheriffs of this county. This and the indictment by the grand jury with the call for trial was quick legal action, rarely equalled.

The Westchester Park Woman's Club were officially represented in the Lying in State ceremonies of Washington's unknown by a large delegation and handsome wreath.

The board of Fire Commissioners held a special meeting on Monday evening last for an oral examination of the several candidates for the position of auto mechanic for the department. The result will probably be announced at the regular semi-monthly meeting, March 8th.

At the meeting of the Village Board on Monday evening trustee Lattimer began to get sleepy over the slow progress being made and proposed to start something. He did all right when he outlined a proposition to organize a men's club. Trustee Balfour commended the thought and the manner in which the proposition was put over. The question was where could such a club assemble. Someone remarked that brother Lattimer was getting the cart before the horse. There was another proposition, to organize a Saturday Night Club. It is a good seed dropped perhaps it will find lodgement in fruitful soil.

The activities worked out at the Neighborhood House are worthy of serious attention and should be loyally upheld. Those doing this work are actuated by a sincere desire to intelligently promote child welfare. The instructors are wise to their work and the children coming under their influence are certain to be benefited. If parents are wise they will co-operate to the limit. This work taken many burdens from parents who are often put to it to know just what to do with their youngsters.

WAVERLY NEWS NOTES.

Richard Thompson, civil war veteran, of Highland Avenue is in the Lawrence hospital suffering from a broken hip caused by a fall on the ice-coated pavement. He will have a hard battle on hand owing to his great age.

Mrs. I. R. Chapman, upon her retirement from the presidency of Ladies Auxiliary of John L. Grogan Post, V. F. W., 136 was presented by the members of the body, over which she had presided with such splendid acceptance, a beautiful diamond-studded Past President's badge.

The woman veterans or Ladies Auxiliary of John Grogan Post will have a local dance on St. Patrick's Day, March 17. The annual dance has been announced for April 13th at Bronxville Village Hall. The funds from this affair will be turned into

Mrs. H. H. Roberts of Bronx Manor, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Streeter, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Howe.

MASONIC NOTES

The dance held in Masonic Temple rooms on Washington's birthday evening, Feb. 22, under the auspices of the Eastern Star was largely attended and a pronounced success. The colonial costumes worn by participants added to brighten the scene. Mr. Eddie Pulvermiller and Miss Louise Hague were prize winners for unique costumes. Dancing was kept up to a late hour, audience seeming reluctant to leave. Prof. Wright's orchestra supplied the music.

On March 23rd Marble Lodge, 702 will hold the monthly dance in the new Masonic hall, tickets 75 cents per person. Refreshments will be served. There should be a large attendance. It is a matter for congratulation that we now have a place right at home where local functions can be pleasantly cared for. All will be glad to see a change in the weather conditions which will permit the completion of the work in the temple.

COMMUNITY WELFARE NOTES

We are glad to announce that Dr. Stupp is able to resume her work of examination and instruction at the Baby Classes at Neighborhood House on Friday Afternoons. We have been fortunate in securing the services of Mrs. Ferry, School Nurse of the Waverly District, for these classes. We hope the mothers will bring the babies at 3 o'clock so that they may be weighed by Mrs. Ferry, their records taken, and that they may be ready for the Doctor when she arrives at 3.30. We feel that these Classes have been of real value to the mothers of the Community in their care of their babies, and we hope they may attend in larger numbers when the weather grows more propitious.

Miss Jackson is encouraged in her work with the boys by having interested Mr. Walter Rollins of Tuckahoe in starting some regular program activities for the boys between the ages of 12 and 16 who meet on Wednesday Evenings at 7 o'clock. Mr. Rollins has had experience in boys' work, and it is felt he will be able to contribute much to the enjoyment and helpfulness of these Club meetings. He will be glad to welcome any boys of this age who care to join the Wednesday group.

On Saturday, March 3d, at 2 P. M., at Neighborhood House, the Committee on Awards of the Crestwood-Tuckahoe Girl Scout Council will conduct regular tests for Tenderfoot Scouts, Second Class Scouts, and those who are working for Merit Badges. As these tests are only given at intervals of some months, all girls who are interested in taking the tests are urged to be present at this time.

Miss Davis, who is a student at Smith College, will return to school Monday.

The Women's Club of Crestwood will give a dance and bridge at the Gramatan Hotel Wednesday evening, April 4th.

"WASHINGTON'S UNKNOWN 1770"

LYING IN STATE CEREMONY FOR REMAINS OF UNKNOWN REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER FEB. 22

of New Jersey sent a telegram announcing his inability to be present. Mayor Hylan of New York City sent regrets because of his absence from the city. Mayor Taussig of Yonkers wrote that he would come and the last day sent a message expressing his great regret that an emergency had prevented his coming.

After the ceremony Thursday, the remains of the Unknown were placed in the vault in the basement of the Village Hall. There they will be enclosed with masonry, to remain until the day of the funeral.

Nearly every man and most of the women in Tuckahoe helped in arranging and participated in the affair. The Daughters of the American Revolution acted as grand patronesses of arrangements.

The Sons of the American Revolution offered every service they could render.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars acted as hostesses to visitors from a distance. They served coffee, tea, cakes and sandwiches to all who could remain long enough to partake of their hospitality. They were assisted by the Catholic Women's Club, Marble Lodge, F. & A. M. opened their new hall for the use of the crowds.

The John L. Grogan Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, No. 136, Tuckahoe, New York, furnished the guard of honor in uniform and furnished escorts for the school children.

Membership of the John L. Grogan Post holds more than its quota of military service distinctions.

Among the honors won by members of the John L. Grogan Post are the Croix de Guerre medal, St. Michel, Argonne, Alsace offensive, Ourcq River and every man in the John L. Grogan Post wears the overseas medal for offensive and defensive action. There are as many wound scars in the John L. Grogan Post as there are members of the Post. The post is named after John L. Grogan, the first soldier boy from Tuckahoe to fall in France.
